Please read the following CAREFULLY: Celebrations Catering operates business over 12 hours per day, six to seven days per week. Precise scheduling is often powered by our customers / last-minute changes and last-minute catering orders. As a result, we frequently make adjustments to your schedule. Please understand that weekend and/or holiday work may also be mandatory. If accepted for employment, please understand that flexible scheduling is the nature of the catering business.
Should you be employed by Celebrations Catering, you should also understand that the first 30 days of employment will be a trial basis. During this time, Celebrations may terminate your employment at any time, and you may resign by your own decision at any time. After the initial 30-day trial period, and you become a permanent employee of Celebrations, a two-week notice is required by me should you decide to leave Celebrations for any reason.
INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED.—fill out all questions!
